As the number of total unemployed Americans decreases, 12 million Americans are still unemployed since the start of the pandemic	January	6.5 million Total unemployed
	February	6.2 million
Unemployment tripled from March to April	March	7.4 million
	April		23 million
	May		21 million
	June		18 million
	July		17 million
and is still over twice as high as	August		14 million
pre-pandemix unemployment	September	12	2 million